MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY

(Central Boilers Board)

New Delhi, the 17th May 1966

G.S.R. 832.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (5 of 1923), the Central Boilers Board hereby makes the following Regulations further to amend the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the said Act, namely:—

1. The Regulations may be called the Indian Boiler (Seventh Amendment) Regulations, 1966.

2. In the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, at the end of Regulation 4, the following Note shall be inserted, namely:—

"Note.—Where, however, the material used, is in conformity with the Code of the country of manufacture and is covered by those Regulations, the permissible stress figures specified in the Code at different temperatures may be accepted in lieu of figures computed from the data required to be furnished under Regulation 271 in any of the following cases, namely:—

- (i) Where a certificate is furnished from an Inspecting Authority to the effect that the steel complies with the requirements of the grade steel (to be specified) and the permissible stress for the working conditions as allowed for in the Code of the country of manufacture falls within the limit permissible under this Regulation.
- (ii) Where the basis upon which these stresses have been arrived at is made available and such basis is not found to be such as to give rise to stresses higher than those permissible under the Regulations."

[No. BL-9(1)/59-EEI.]

G.S.R. 833.—The following draft of certain Regulations further to amend the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, which the Central Boilers Board proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (5 of 1923), is published as required by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the said Act, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 31st July, 1966.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Boilers Board. Such objections or suggestions should be addressed to the Secretary, Central Boilers Board, Ministry of Industry, 'Udyog Bhavan', New Delhi.

Draft Regulations

1. These Regulations may be called the Indian Boiler (Amendment) Regulations, 1966.

2. In the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950,—

- (i) in clause (a) of Regulation 347, after sub-clause (vi) the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(vii) For butt welded pipes, flattening test carried out in accordance with any other standard code may be accepted, in which case the code shall be specified."

- (ii) after clause (e) in Regulation 347, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(f) Hydraulic Test—Each pipe shall be tested by hydraulic pressure on completion of manufacture. The test pressure shall be 1.5 times the design pressure, but in any case shall not be less than 1000 pounds per square inch (70 kg/cm²) nor greater than the pressure calculated from the formula:—

P=the test pressure

D=the outside diameter

and s=a stress which shall be taken as 40 percent of the minimum tensile strength at room temperature."

(iii) for Table I under Regulation 347, the following table shall be substituted, namely:—

"TABLE I—Carbon Steels—Butt welded pipes"

Kind of test-pipes	Ultimate tensile strength in Kg/Sq. mm (tons per sq. inch)	Minimum elongation percent on gauge length 5.65 where A is the original area of cross-section of the test-pipe.	Sulphur percent maximum	Phosphorus percent maximum
Strips cut from the pipes clear off the welds and tested in their curved condition	35—47 (22—30)	27—20	0.050	0.050"
OR
Test length taken from finished pipes (ends of pipes to be plugged for grips).

[No. BL-2(2)/62-EEL.]

G.S.R. 834.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 28 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (5 of 1923), the Central Boilers Board hereby makes the following Regulations further to amend the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the said Act, namely:—

1. The Regulations may be called the Indian Boiler (Sixth Amendment) Regulations, 1966.

2. In the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950,—

(i) in Regulation 166, in clause (c), the following shall be added at the end, namely:—

"Where the door of a mudhole, cleaning hole or sight hole is fabricated by welding for boilers not exceeding a working pressure of 125 lbs. per sq. inch (8.8 Kg/cm²), the stud shall pass through the plate and be secured to it by strength-welding on the inside and fillet-welding on the outside to the satisfaction of the Inspecting Authority. The door shall be stress relieved by heat-treatment after welding."

(ii) in Regulation 354, in the third paragraph, the following shall be added at the end, namely:—

"Where the door of a mudhole, cleaning hole or sight hole is fabricated by welding for boilers not exceeding a working pressure of 125 lbs. per sq. inch. (8.8 Kg/cm²), the stud shall pass through the plate and be secured to it by strength-welding on the inside and fillet-welding on the outside to the satisfaction of the Inspecting Authority. The door shall be stress relieved by heat-treatment after welding."

[No. BL-9(11)/66-EEL.]

CUSTOMS*New Delhi, the 4th June 1966*

G.S.R. 846.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 157 of the Customs Act 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Board of Excise and Customs hereby makes the following regulations namely:—

1. Short title.—These regulations may be called Manufacture and other operations in warehouse Regulations, 1966.

2. Definitions.—For the purpose of these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

(i) “Act” means the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962);

(ii) “manufacturer” means the owner of any warehoused goods to whom sanction has been accorded under regulation 5;

- (iii) "proper" form means such form as the Assistant Collector of Customs may require to be adopted.

3. Owner to make application.—(a) The owner of any goods warehoused under the Act intending to undertake any manufacturing process or other operations in the warehouse in relation to such goods shall make an application to the Assistant Collector of Customs in the proper form and furnish inter alia;

- (i) information regarding the nature of the manufacturing process or other operations;
- (ii) particulars of imported and other goods proposed to be used in the manufacturing process or other operations;
- (iii) the detailed plan and description of the warehouse; and
- (iv) data regarding the volume of trade anticipated out of the manufacturing process or other operations.

(b) The applicant shall on being called upon to do so furnish such other information as may be required.

4. Execution of Bond.—The Assistant Collector of Customs may, if he is satisfied that the applicant has carried out such alterations to the warehouse premises as may be required for this purpose and that the volume of trade and other considerations justify grant of sanction direct the applicant to file a bond, undertaking inter alia to.

- (i) observe all the provisions of these regulations;
- (ii) maintain detailed accounts of all imported and other goods used in the manufacturing process or other operations in the proper form and to produce such accounts for inspection by the proper officer;
- (iii) submit detailed statements of all imported and other goods, used in the manufacturing process or other operations and those remaining in stock, at any time the proper officer directs;
- (iv) provide to the officers of customs stationed in the warehouse for control and supervision of the manufacturing process or other operations such amenities as may be specified by the Assistant Collector of Customs;
- (v) pay all the charges including pay, allowances, leave and pensionary charges of such officers as may from time to time be posted by the Assistant Collector of Customs in the warehouse for supervision and control of the manufacturing process or other operations; and
- (vi) comply with such other conditions as may be imposed by the Assistant Collector of Customs from time to time for carrying out the purposes of these regulations and the Act.

5. Grant of sanction.—On execution of the bond, in the manner hereinbefore provided, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall accord sanction to the applicant to carry on such manufacturing process or other operations specifying;

- (a) the manufacturing process or other operations permitted to be carried on in the warehouse;
- (b) the types and nature of imported and other goods permitted to be used;
- (c) the period for which the sanction is valid; and
- (d) the conditions, if any, subject to which the manufacturing process or other operations may be carried on in the warehouse.

6. Conditions that may be imposed by the Assistant Collector of Customs.—The Assistant Collector of Customs may from time to time:—

- (i) fix the dates or days on which and the hours during which the manufacturing process or other operations may be carried on in the warehouse;

- (ii) determine the number of customs officers that may be attached to the warehouse for purposes of supervising the manufacturing process or other operations;
- (iii) fix the sum payable by the manufacturer towards the cost of such establishment and the extra charges payable towards the overtime services, if any, performed by such establishment at the request of the manufacturer; and
- (iv) prescribe the manner in which manufactured goods shall be packed, marked and stored at different stages of the manufacturing process or other operations.

7. Plant, Machinery accessories, fixtures, etc. must be duty paid.—Plant, machinery, fixtures and accessories necessary for carrying on the manufacturing process or other operations in the warehouse and consumable stores required for the maintenance thereof must be duty-paid.

8. Manufacture to be under supervision of Customs Officers.—The manufacturer shall carry on the manufacturing process or other operations in the warehouse under such supervision as the Assistant Collector of Customs may direct.

9. Maintenance of accounts.—The manufacturer shall maintain accounts relating to stocks, raw-materials, goods in process, finished goods, waste and refuse in proper form:

Provided that where the manufacturer maintains for his own purpose such detailed accounts and has carried out such alterations in the form of accounts as may be required in this behalf, the Assistant Collector of Customs may in his discretion direct such forms of accounts to be adopted as the proper form.

10. Accounts to be accessible to Customs Officer.—The proper officer may, at any time, inspect or call for the accounts and connected records for scrutiny.

11. Control of proper officer over storage premises in the warehouses.—All rooms in the warehouse premises, wherein imported goods for use in the manufacturing process or other operations are stored, shall also be looked by the proper officer and the keys kept in his custody.

12. Issue and return of imported goods to/from the manufacturing process or other operations.—(a) The Assistant Collector of Customs shall, having regard to the manufacturing process or other operations to be carried on in the warehouse, direct the manner in which the imported goods shall be issued from and the un-used items received back into stock.

(b) The application for issue of imported goods and the vouchers against which the un-used items may be returned shall be in the proper form.

13. Manufacturer to give notice before suspending or discontinuing the manufacturing process or other operations.—(a) No manufacturer shall suspend or discontinue the manufacturing process or other operations authorised to be carried on in the warehouse without giving in writing to the Assistant Collector of Customs, one month's notice of his intention so to do:

Provided that in any particular case the aforesaid period of one month may, on sufficient cause being shown, be reduced by the Assistant Collector of Customs by such period as the Assistant Collector may deem fit.

Provided also that where the manufacturer suspends or discontinues the manufacturing process or other operations without any notice, he shall be liable to pay on demand the cost of establishment and other charges for such reasonable period as the Assistant Collector of Customs may in his discretion determine.

14. Cancellation and suspension of sanction.—(a) If the manufacturer or any person in his employ commits a breach of the provisions of the Act or the terms and conditions imposed by or under these regulations, or if the particulars furnished in the application for sanction is false or incorrect, or if any undertaking given in the bond is not fulfilled the Assistant Collector of Customs may without prejudice to any other action that he may take under the provisions of the Act or these regulations, cancel the sanction for carrying on the manufacturing process or other operations:

Provided that before the sanction is cancelled the manufacturer shall be given reasonable opportunity of being heard.

15. Repeal.—The Rules and Regulations specified in the Schedule to these regulations shall cease to be in force except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such cesser.

MINISTRY OF IRRIGATION AND POWER

New Delhi, the 21st May 1966

G.S.R. 856.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the Class I and Class II (Engineering and Scientific) posts in the Central Water and Power Research Station, Poona, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Central Water and Power Research Station, Poona, Class I and Class II (Engineering and Scientific) Posts Recruitment Rules, 1966.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the Class I and Class II (Engineering and Scientific) posts in the Central Water and Power Research Station, Poona, including Class I and Class II (Scientific) posts in the Central Water and Power Commission (Water Wing) and Subordinate offices thereunder.

3. Classification, Scales of Pay, Method of Recruitment, Age limit, Qualifications, etc.—The number of posts, their classification, the scales of pay attached thereto, the method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating to the said posts shall be as specified in the Schedule annexed to these rules:

Provided that the upper age limit prescribed for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

4. Liability to serve in Defence Services and posts connected with Defence.—Every person appointed to any of the said posts for which qualification of a Degree in Engineering is necessary, shall, if so required, be liable to serve in any defence service or post connected with the defence of India, for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any:

Provided that such person—

(a) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of appointment;

(b) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

5. Posting.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2) officers appointed to any of the said posts shall be liable to serve throughout India or abroad.

(2) Officers appointed to any of the said posts shall be liable to be sent on deputation or transfer to any other department of the Central Government or to any other Central Service or to a Union territory or on foreign service to a body (whether incorporated or not) which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Government, ordinarily for a period not exceeding three years at a time. The period of deputation or transfer or foreign service, may, however, be extended, where considered necessary:

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall apply to any officer appointed on deputation or by transfer in the Central Water and Power Research Station, Poona.

(3) The conditions of service of officers during the period they are on deputation or transfer or on foreign service under sub-rule (2) shall be governed by such orders as may be issued by the Central Government from time to time:

Provided that the conditions of service applicable to such officers immediately before their deputation or transfer or foreign service shall not be void to their disadvantage.

6. Disqualification for appointment.—(1) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts.

(2) No woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there were special grounds for so ordering exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

7. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

New Delhi, the 27th May 1966

G.S.R. 859.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to class I posts in the Survey Wing of the Minor Ports

Dredging and Survey Organisation, Department of Transport, Shipping and Tourism, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Minor Ports Dredging and Survey Organisation, Survey Wing (Class I posts) Recruitment Rules, 1966.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts specified in column 1 of the Schedule annexed hereto.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay.—The number of posts, their classification and scales of pay attached thereto, shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other matters.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating to the said posts shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the Schedule aforesaid:

Provided that the upper age limit specified for direct recruitment in column 6 of the said Schedule may be relaxed in the case of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Liability to serve in any Defence Service or post connected with the Defence of India.—Any person appointed to a post specified in the said Schedule shall, if so required, be liable to serve in any Defence Service or post connected with the Defence of India, for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any:

Provided that such person,

(a) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of appointment;

(b) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

6. Disqualification.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the posts, and

(b) no woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the post:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

7. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.
